LAST EDITION.

New York.

Suspension—Laborers Discharged

—The Storm-Tuning on Shipboard — The Vice President—From Washington, etc.

New York, Nov. 12.—The suspension of the house of S. M. Beard & Co., formerly Beard & Cunningham, was announced yesterday afternoon. Liabilities are placed at about $300,000. The house got into difficulties about two years ago, since which time it has been crippled. The assets are not known. A meeting of the creditors will be held in a day or two.

Several hundred laborers employed on the public works in this city have been discharged by General Fitzjohn Porter, owing to the appropriation being nearly exhausted.

The violent storm of rain and wind, which prevailed all day yesterday and last night, included in its course a large section of country, and proved especially disastrous along the coast. The wind blew here at the rate of thirty-two miles an hour. Telegraph wires were down in several places, and considerable damage done to shipping has already been reported, but thus far without loss of life. The weather now is clear and cold, with a brisk wind blowing.

George E. Way, the tea merchant, who failed a few days ago, with $70,000 liabilities, will pay 60 cents on the dollar.

A Herald London special says the crew of the British ship Lennie mutinied and murdered the officers on the thirty-first of October, killing Captain Hatfield and mate, and the boatswain, when off New Britain. The Lennie was bound from Antwerp for New York.

A Washington special says Dr. Baxter is now confident that Vice President Wilson will be as well as usual in a few days. He is now comparatively easy, and much more cheerful. Postmaster General Jewell, Dr. Baxter, Mr. E. V.
Murphy and Mr. French remained with him through the night.

A Washington special says it is expected that reports of the Cabinet Ministers will be ready for the President next Monday, and that he will begin writing his message to Congress not later than the 20th inst.

He will leave the question of finances to be discussed at length in Secretary Bristow's review and report, as the latter is completing an exhaustive and very able paper on the subject.

The President will most probably devote a large portion of his message to a presentation of our duties as a Nation in the matter of the war in Cuba.

Should Cushing's efforts at settling the troubles in Cuba by urging Spain to cede it to the United States be futile, the policy of recognition of the Cuban Republic will be recommended to Congress. It is quite probable that the President and Mr. Fish will differ, however, on the subject of recognizing Cuba.

All this looks like a piece of strategy on the part of Chandler and Edmunds to secure the President one more element of strength towards securing the nomination for a third term.

THE HERALD ON THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

New York, Nov. 12.—The Herald, editorially speaking of the political prospect, says if Grant forces his own nomination, which he has the power to do, he could not be elected, whereas any other candidate possessing the confidence of himself and the party might easily carry off the prize. If Grant should be the Republican nominee, there would be a bolt, and an opposition Republican candidate.

The indactionists would also put forward a candidate, and a serious race would be the result. With two Republican and two Democratic candidates in the field, the Herald deprecates such an event on various grounds, and says the result would undoubtedly be the election of a Democratic President. Grant can tie up all this storm by a frank renunciation of all personal ambitions, and giving his aid and influence to some good candidate, sound on the financial question, and having the confidence of the party.

TERRIBLE SUFFERINGS AT SEA.

The brig Centaur arrived at Greytown yesterday, bringing the only survivor of the bark Toronto, of Glasgow, wrecked near Nassau on the 24 of October. The survivor, a colored man, was found in a boat, insensible. He says when the Toronto was wrecked, all took to the long boats. Of these some were washed into the sea, leaving himself and six others in the boat without water or provisions. Some of his companions became delirious and jumped into the sea, while others died, leaving him alone till he was found by the officers of the Centaur.

THAT WASHINGTON RING.

Colonel Joyce Offers To Tell All.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—A private letter from St. Louis says that Col. Joyce, leading spirit in the whiskey ring, has offered to turn State's evidence and make a complete exposure of the workings of the whiskey ring, with the names of all persons connected with it. It is intimated that such an exposure will surprise the public more than anything that has yet taken place, and will be followed by the indictment of a number of officials whose names have not yet been mentioned in this connection.

St. Louis, Nov. 12.—Hon. D. W. Voorhees, who has been retained to conduct the defense of McKee and Maguire, has arrived, and is spending to-day in consultation with his clients. John A.
Mead, ex-gauger, yesterday withdrew his plea of "not guilty" and entered a plea of "guilty."

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 12.—Joyce has been in frequent and close communication with his friends for the last twenty-four hours, and it is believed has made up his mind to turn State's evidence and take the consequences. He is very bitter on his former associates, and claims that those who promised in the strongest terms to stand by him to the last have endeavored to make him a scapegoat, so as to get clear themselves.
It is hinted that he will give his story complete to the District Attorney to-day or to-morrow.

Notes and News from the Northwest.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—Edward Payson Weston has arrived to complete the arrangements for his 500 mile walk with Daniel O'Leary, the walker. They will commence at 12:30, Sunday night, and continue six days, or till the entire distance is accomplished, for a purse of $5,000. Both are to get clear themselves to be addressed to parties named. He is supposed to have realized a large sum.
He is held for trial.

The Railroad and Work-house Commissioners, the Commissioners of Public Charities, the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the State Board of Agriculture are now domiciled in the Capitol building at Springfield, and the work of preparation for the reception of the other State officers is being pressed.

The Kasson libel suit against the Daily Register, of Des Moines, and James O.
Savery is on trial. The plaintiff asks $50,000 damages for being charged with receiving bribes for his vote while in Congress.

The Morning Courier, of to-day, contains an interview with a prominent Federal official, in Detroit. He is an intimate friend of Secretary Chandler, who, while in Detroit a short time since, stated positively that Grant would be a candidate for a third term. Mr. Chan-der accepted the Secretary's order to help in the plan for a renomination.
He believes a war with Spain necessary in order to capture the Southern vote.

Five Losses.

HUDSON, N. Y., Nov. 12.—About two o'clock this morning a fire at Ghent, Columbia county, on the Harlem railroad, destroyed the store and dwelling of J.
Walwood and residence and out-buildings of Jacob J. Miller. Loss $15,000 to $20,000, with an insurance of $14,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

HAMILTON, ONT., Nov. 12.—The saw-mills of J. & A. Smith, of Lancaster, were burned this morning. About 20,000 feet of lumber were consumed. The flames then caught to the boarding-house, which was also destroyed. Loss unknown.

BUYRUS, O., Nov. 12.—The barns belonging to Miller, Alcorn, Johnston, Bohman, Drabot, Swings, and Louch Schultz's blacksmith shop, a butcher shop, part of Johnston's drug store, and Winter & Temple's store burned last night. The Alcorn House and Journal office were in great danger and everything was moved out, but they both escaped with slight damage. The loss will reach $12,000. Insurance, $5,000.
$1,000 each in the Amazon, Eliza and Phoenix; $5,000 in Richland and $2,000 in Knex.

Opening—Railroad News.

Special to the Star.

CHILLICOTHE, O., 12 Nov.—John Kir-chenschlager's beer hall, bowling alley and restaurant here were opened last night with great display. This hall is said to be among the finest in the State, and adds greatly to the appearance of the city.

Work is still being pushed ahead rapidly on the S. V. R. R.

The work on the D. & S. E. railroad has been sublet from Waverly to Jackson, and operations will commence at once.

Sudden Death.

Special to the Star.

MCARTHUR, O., Nov. 12.—Thomas Kennedy, a laborer on the M. & C. railroad, was taken very suddenly with cramps in the bowels while out at work on the track near Zaleski, on Wednesday, and died yesterday morning, having no relief whatever during the twenty-four hours that he suffered. The case was a most singular one. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon, and was largely attended by the students of that town.

Terse Telegrams.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The cornered lad men-to-day agreed to settle according to the requirements of the Lord Commissioners.

KNOXVILLE, TENN., Nov. 12.—The shock of an earthquake was distinctly felt here at 2 o'clock this morning, causing much alarm.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—A fire broke out in the Union Club rooms, Madison square, this afternoon, starting in the floor under the kitchen range, where live coals are nightly dumped from a roasting jack on the concrete flooring. The damage was slight.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 12.—The application of the State of New Jersey for an injunction restraining the Delaware and Baltimore railroad from building their new bridge across the Delaware river at Yardville, thus obstructing navigation, will be argued Saturday, 13th.

Late Foreign News.

THE ELECTORAL BILL.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—In a division of the Assembly yesterday on the electoral bill 356 members voted in favor of the Scrutin de Liste and 326 against it, giving the Government a majority of 31.

CARLIST DEFEAT.

MADRID, Nov. 12.—A dispatch received here by the Government states that the Carlists made a sortie from Sebastian and were defeated by the Government troops, with some loss.

DOMINION DOINGS.

MONTREAL, Nov. 12.—A child 2 years old was severely scalded by falling into a tub of boiling water. It is apprehended that the result will be fatal.

Guibord's funeral will not come off this week. It is understood that the entire volunteer force of the city will be called out.

The snow which fell yesterday is all gone, and the weather is fine.

HAMILTON, ONT., Nov. 12.—Mrs. Harrison, residing on Carmou street, was found dead in bed this morning. Foul play is suspected, and an investigation is now in progress.

OTTAWA, Nov. 12.—The Judges of the Supreme Court are engaged at their office, in the Parliament House, every day arranging the machinery for the opening of the Court and management of the details in connection with the business that will be brought before it.

PANAMA NEWS.

PANAMA, Nov. 12.—News from Panama is meager, and mostly of personal interest. On the 25th of October it was announced that a loan of $12,000 was required, which will be collected by force, if necessary, from the merchants of Panama. No opposition has been offered.

The Panama Commission sent to the State militia under Verardo, has returned, bringing with him proposals, which, it is understood, were accepted by the Governor on the 20th of October.
The conditions included the payment of back salaries to the soldiers and General Assembly.

Capt. Dow, of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, returns to New York by the Colan, for the purpose of bringing the new steamer City of Sydney for the Australian route.

Another break occurred on the Panama road at Empire Station the other day, but was quickly repaired.
The heavy rains of late and the next month, it is feared, will do considerable damage to the line in its present state.

A LIVELY PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

The Presidential election in Peru was attended with fearful disaster and bloodshed. The firing raged fiercely about the polls, and about twenty-four deaths are known to have occurred in the capital and the wounded probably reach a much higher figure. General Pedro is believed to be the successful candidate.

BRINGING A BANK TO TERMS.

Suit was brought against the London Bank of Mexico and South America, in the Tribunal of Commerce, on the 29th of October, and resulted in the bank being ordered to meet its entire paper in coin within three days, otherwise the bank would be seized and held for debt.

WHAT SPAIN IS DOING.

HAVANA, Nov. 12.—A private letter received here from Spain says the Spanish iron-clad fleet of four frigates is ready to sail for Cuba. The vessels carry seventy-five guns of heavy calibre, with a complement of two thousand men. They will also carry two hundred men each as reinforcements to the Spanish army in Cuba.

GRAND CONCERT.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—The Guard Republican to-day gave a grand concert in this city for the benefit of the Franco-American Union. It was largely attended and the audience was very enthusiastic.

FLASHES.

J. J. Moberly, a sewing machine agent of Lexington, Ky., made an ineffectual effort at suicide by poison.

At Sullivan, Ind., Thomas Shepherd was sentenced to the Penitentiary for life for shooting Mason Eagle in June last.

Jefferson Davis has accepted the Presidency of the American department of the Mississippi Valley Society of London.

McPhlamy & Co's flouring mills at Sharpsburg, Pa., were destroyed yesterday by fire. Loss $14,000; partially insured.

Rev. S. H. Blackwell, of the New Albany Presbytery, was last night expelled. He was pastor of a church at Seymour, Ind.

The Pullman Palace Car Company is about to bring suit at Detroit for infringement of patents against the Wagner Car Company.

Jas. King, a brakeman on the Louiville and Great Southern railroad, threw himself before the engine last night at Grenada, receiving serious injuries.

Governor Allen has issued his proclamation declaring the proposed amendment to the Constitution of Ohio relating to the Supreme Court Commission adopted, and that for taxing dogs not adopted.

Gov. Hendricks has named as delegates from Indiana to the St. Louis Railroad Convention, the following:
Hon. Leonidas Sexton, E. S. Alvord,
Chas. Vicks, Esq., Hon. C. M. Allen, Jesse J. Brown, Esq., Hon. J. B. Craven, B. F. Claypool, M. L. Bundy, John Gavin, D. W. Voorhees, Judge S. C.
Wilson, Dr. M. G. Sherman, C. B.
Kneveland, Esq., Hon. Oenwels Bird, Dr.
G. W. McQuay.

Some of the leading Good Templars of England recently consulted Cardinal Manning with the idea of obtaining
